

University of South Florida – St Petersburg

Guidelines for Participation in the Employee Perks Program:

1. Companies must be local to the State of Florida.
2. Companies must have a storefront or physical location of business.
3. Final decisions, approvals, and/or rejections are at the sole discretion of the University of South Florida – St. Petersburg.

Disclaimer: USF SP does not endorse any of the companies listed as part of the Employee Perks Program. In addition, the information provided is intended to be informational and we will not be held responsible for the accuracy of the information provided or the reputation of the companies listed.