Exploring Collaborative Opportunities and Resource Sharing in GIS Training
Wednesday Nov 19th 2008 10:30am - noon

Objectives of Forum: With the limited GIS training dollars available to local governments it is critical to make the most of training money by exploring collaborative opportunities in GIS training through: cost sharing, expert knowledge sharing or 'train the trainer' programs.

Hosted by the University of South Florida
St. Petersburg, in conjunction with their
GIS Day Event (entire event 9am-4pm)

Appropriate for any Agency/Department interested in using GIS (or already using GIS), Consultants/Professionals interested in or willing to share, collaborate or develop cross-training, cost-sharing for GIS training initiatives and applications
