Thinking through World War I... Florida, the U.S., and the World

Tuesday, April 14, 2015, 6:00PM
St. Petersburg Museum of History
335 2nd Avenue NE, St. Petersburg

Dr. Gary Mormino
Frank E. Duckwall Florida Professor of History Emeritus, USFSP

Dr. Ronald Granieri
Lauder Institute, Univ. of Pennsylvania Foreign Policy Research Institute

History with local roots and global consequences, brought alive in a keynote conversation between expert historians from near and far...

This event is co-sponsored by the USFSP Department of History & Politics, the USFSP Florida Studies Program, the Florida Humanities Council, and the St. Petersburg Museum of History