Summer B– ONLINE
American National Government – POS 2041 #50729

About the Course:

This course is a state-mandated General Education course that is a requirement for many majors.

There’s no better time to study American government and politics. And no better place to study than USFSP (or, wherever you are this summer – this course is 100% online).

Florida has been referred to as the “swingiest” of the swing states, and the largest battleground state in the country. Tampa Bay is part of the “I-4 Corridor,” the battleground region in Florida politics.

The civics projects will give students first-hand experience, learning citizenship by doing.

About the Professor:
Dr. Scourfield McLauchlan is an Associate Professor of Political Science and Founding Director of the Center for Civic Engagement. McLauchlan was awarded the American Political Science Association and Pi Sigma Alpha’s Certificate for Outstanding Teaching in Political Science, USF’s Chancellor’s Award for Excellence in Teaching, and the USF Outstanding Faculty Award. Her book Congressional Participation as Amicus Curiae before the U.S. Supreme Court explores how Members of Congress attempt to influence Supreme Court decision-making in specific cases. In addition to her scholarly activities, Professor McLauchlan has extensive experience in American government and politics. McLauchlan worked at the US Supreme Court, the US Senate Judiciary Committee, the US Department of Justice, and the White House. A veteran of several presidential campaigns, she has managed statewide operations across the US, from Portland, Maine to Portland, Oregon. In 2014 she was a candidate for Florida Senate District 22.
